
What is the ProRef program?

The "Program for the Academic Preparation and Integration of Refugees" (ProRef) at the Europa-Universität Flensburg (EUF) supports refugees who are interested in studying at higher education institutions.

Through language and key competence courses as well as study, career and social counseling, the EUF facilitates integration into the German higher education system, the labor market and society.

The ProRef program includes

- academically oriented German and English language courses at levels B2-C1
- recognized language examinations (German/English)
- accompanying courses consisting of four key competence modules: methodological competence, social and personal competence, cultural competence, media and IT competence
- Individual study, career and social counseling
- support in finding accommodation, applying for studies and applying for BAföG
- guest auditor status: free use of the university infrastructure and attendance of lectures and seminars
- possibility to obtain the statewide semester ticket for Schleswig-Holstein and Hamburg
- course excursions, events and campus tours
- CampusFRIENDS – a buddy program without borders! Exchange program between ProRef participants and enrolled students
- extracurricular activities: cultural events and social activities

How does the program work?

July – Aug.	Phase 1: Summer School
Sep. – Dec.	Phase 2: Fall semester
Jan. – Feb.	Phase 3: Winter School
March – June	Phase 4: Spring semester

15. July Application deadline for most study programs

from September Start of the study program (1st semester)

Phase 1: Summer School

- refresher courses in German at the levels B1+/B2+ or English at level B1+
- key competence modules (methodological competence, social and personal competence, cultural competence, media and IT competence)

Phase 2: Fall semester

- four-month language course in German at levels B2/C1 or English at level B2
- courses from the four key competence modules

Phase 3: Winter School

- two-month language course in German at levels B2/C1 or English at level B2
- courses from the four key competence modules

Phase 4: Spring semester

- four-month language course in German or English at level C1
- courses from the four key competence modules

Who can apply?

You can apply for the ProRef program if you

- have a refugee background
- have a university entrance qualification (Hochschulzugangsberechtigung)
- have language skills in German or English at least at level B1
- would like to start studying after the end of the program

EUF students with a refugee background can also participate in individual language courses and/or key competence modules.

Application documents

Please enclose all relevant language and educational certificates with your online application. Certificates in the original language must also be submitted in a German or English translation (by sworn translators).

Missing language certificates

If you do not have a language certificate, you can take a language placement test in German and/or English at the EUF.

Photo: Christina Bloody/EUF

Which study possibilities are there at the EUF?

Bachelor's Programs and required language levels

- English B2
B.A. European Cultures and Society
- English B2 + German C1
B.A. International Management
- German C1
B.A. Educational Sciences

Bachelor's Programs and required language levels

- English B2
M.Eng. Energy and Environmental Management (Developing Countries)
- English B2 + German C1
M.A. International Management Studies
M.A. Transformation Studies
M.Eng. Energy and Environmental Management (Industrial Countries)
- English B2 + German C1 or English C1 + German B2
M.A. Culture – Language – Media
- English C1
M.A. European Studies
- German C1
M.A. Education in Europe
M.A. Kita-Master
M.Ed. Teacher Training (various courses of study)

Cover Photo: Lusine Avetisyan/EUF

Contact

Europa-Universität Flensburg

International Center
Flüchtlingsprogramme
Raum VII 207/208
Auf dem Campus 1b
24943 Flensburg

Changes in the schedule are possible. Therefore, please check our website regularly for the latest information:
uni-flensburg.de/en/proref

Information, counseling and application

Moritz Schneider
proref@uni-flensburg.de

DAAD

Bundesministerium
für Bildung
und Forschung

ProRef

Program for the Academic Preparation and Integration of Refugees

valid from program round
2020/21

Europa-Universität
Flensburg